

Above see my crew: Larry, Lori, Cindy, Sandi and Randy

This website is simply a vehicle to bore you with my scribbles and memories. On occasion I will add more "stuff" to this site. It is a conglomeration of stories of my five children's childhoods, my childhood, and trips that Jim and I have taken. Feel free to browse this site but, please, keep in mind that I write from the heart and the heart does not always pay strict attention to things like punctuation, spelling, and grammar. May you find something here that sparks a memory of your own and makes your heart smile.